MASS., AND BOSTON CLASS LETTERS.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 5, 1902.

"In a week school will begin. Then look out for some ignorant abuse of the school board." — Northern Advertiser.

It was always thus and some people think that is what school boards are for.

Readers of Weymouth Agricultural and Industrial Society elsewhere in this issue, and they get your stuff ready for the fair, and also reserve three days to see other people's stuff, and see what other people do.

Whoever is responsible for the accident at Pittsfield which caused decapitation of the nation's head, the fact should be established that under any and all circumstances the president has "the right of way."

Some one with a nimble pencil has signed it out that the annual profits of the great meet, packing combine will be $75,000,000, but as the organization is not completed it is early to speculate as to what its profits will be.

Will the next Congress give us a further reduction in revenue tax? If not, why not? The showing for August justifies another reduction the revenue was $6,000,000 in excess of expenditures and money continues to pile up in Uncle Sam's vaults.

President Mitchell of coal labor federation says the men engaged in the strike are as firm as ever. On the other hand coal operators say the end of the strike is near and the public is left to draw its own inference as to what the moment will be.

It is less than ten years since the Legislature established Labor Day was passed as the real young holiday has become a strong rival of our glories of July 4th as was evidenced on Monday. The day was generally observed and regular business gave way to its celebration.

The Social Labor party has nominated Michael T. Berry of Haverhill for governor and the Prohibition party has nominated William H. Partridge of Newton. As there are to be several other conventions and more men added to the lists there is no especial basis in picking out your man, but it is none too early to be sure you are registered and can vote when election day comes around.

AUGUST CRIMINAL RECORD.

The District Court Has Seventy-four Cases Less Than in Previous Month.

The number of criminal cases before the District Court during the month of August as reported by Franklin Filter Spear was 125, 74 less than in July.

Of these cases, 44 were for drunkenness; 32 for disturbing the peace; 15 for assault; 6 for larceny; 12 for breaking and entering; 3 each for breaking and entering, trespass and violation of by-laws; 2 each for cruelty to animals, malicious mischief, tramp, threat, search for stolen goods; 1 each for assault to the injury of real estate; transportation, riding bicycle on sidewalks, violating Park rules, liquor license and license expense.

The unfinished cases on Sept. 1, were as follows: October cases, 21; November cases, 1; December cases, 1; January cases, 1; February cases, 2; March cases, 6; April cases, 3; May cases, 7; June cases, 4; July cases, 24; August cases, 17.

Republican Caucus.

The Republican town committee met in Engle hall, Ward 3, Wednesday night. Nearly every member of the committee was present. The chairman, E. W. Hunt, called the meeting to order and in the absence of the secretary, W. C. Earle was elected secretary pro tem.

A state was made up of delegates to the national convention and it was voted to hold the general caucus in Old Victoria's Opera House East Weymouth, Wednesday evening, the 21st of this month.

The average wife would rather have her husband tell her everything, even though she doesn't believe half of what he says.

HANNAH L. LOVELL, P. M.

A Wisconsin farmer, very fond of green corn, ate 84 ears for dinner and 12 for supper, and they got up to the right size and 11 more. The infatuated star was: "First the blade, then the ear, and then the full corn in the ear."

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of cough in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturer in which it failed to effect a cure. When the disease is so severe a child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croaky cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale at William Webster's drug store.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH.
Defender of East Weymouth is Again a Winner.

The Knights of Columbus of Waltham celebrated Labor Day with what they rightly called a field day. There was a big parade, many games and races, but the most brilliant feature was a veteran fife and drum corps in which twenty uniforms joined in a contest for prizes, aggregating $25.

A high wind prevailed which somewhat interfered with long distances, but in the main it was considered about as favorable for one as for another.

Much dissatisfaction is expressed as to the awarding of the first prize. A formal protest was made in the streets of the old jackets of canvas which had been joined in a contest for five prizes, aggregating $25.

ARE AS FOLLOWS:

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19, 1902.

Next week is fair week, every day will be a good one.

Nature is putting on her best colors and our milliners are vying with nature.
Read the fine new millinery ads. in this issue, and for the next few weeks look at the attractions.

Some foreign tourists are coming home
by steamer because their finances have run low and others are coming home by steamer because it is the only passage they can get, so great is the appeal for "home land."

Theodore Roosevelt's midnight departure of some credit for his administration of affairs, but he comes to Oyster Bay who takes a memorial service to McKinley who has a praise service of Roosevelt in his own presence ought to have shown better taste.

The making of two classes of New York's 400 by Col. Waterson seems to be well timed when a member of one class is found in the street with a broken skull as the result of a drunken brawl. As Waterson rightly says there are all kinds of four hundred.

There is no law, written or unwritten,
to prevent a Republican or a Democrat either from running for office in this country if he wants to—Norwood Alvertater.

The above item of intelligence is very opposite as there may possibly be to people who did not know it before, but it is a good idea to find out what backing
you have before making your candidature too public.

The political situation has taken rapid strides this week. The Democratic party held its State Convention, and the name of William A. Gaston has been added to the list of candidates for governor.

The constitution and platform of the party afford interesting material for reflection. The congressional fight is waxing warm in some districts, and it is rumored that large battles are being opened. With however, there is but little to be said, we are in the 10th district and Hon. Samson L. Powers who is crediting his first term with honest and creditable work.

There was a long list of candidates for county commissioners, with Mr. Bradford in the lead. In the few districts of which we are a part,
William H. Powers of Hyde Park is conspicuously at the front with a previous record in the lower branch of the legislature which is most decidedly in his favor as a man of marked ability. When we get down to the representative district we will have a long list of names which come to the front this week is William T. Tobin, a staunch Republican of East Weymouth.

DEATH OF OLD SOLDIER.

Albert Chase Passes Away at Togus, Me.
Was a Veteran of the Civil War and Held up President Lincoln's Assassins to Washington Navy Yard Bridge.

Albert Chase, a former resident of this town, died at the National Soldier's Home at Togus, Me., last Friday. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and was sergeant of the guard at the Navy Yard bridge at Washington on the night John Wilkes Booth made good his escape after assassinating President Lincoln.

He died Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m.
for several minutes by his side, as he was in a good account of himself, was allowed to go. After his capture, a part of the reward offered for his apprehension was paid to Chase.

The remains of Mr. Chase were brought here Sunday, and were escorted from King & Pack's undertaking rooms by the members of Reynolds' Post, No. 6, A. R., where the Grand Army funeral services were performed.

Launching of Des Moines.

The U.S. Cruiser Des Moines will be launched from the Firth River Ship &

HANNAH L. LOVELL, F. M.

Cultivate kindness of heart; think well
of your fellow-men; look with charity upon the shortcomings in their lives; do a good turn for them as opportunity offers; and, finally, don't forget the kind word at the right time.

Electric roads which intend to make fast time between given points should be required to purchase their own right of way, except in case the highway is an adequate as to minimize the danger of accident.

Another lesson which may be learned from the accident is that of the full duty of the President, almost more than is absolutely necessary.—(Manchester, N. H., Union).

Mr. D. F. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, Va., may likely owes his life to the kindness of his physician. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with rheumatism attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Chloro and Diarrhea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours.

WILD RIDE.
Adventure of Annie Louise Tirrell.

[From the Deaver Post.]

Lucky Little Louise Tirrell of the Boston Bijou Opera Company feels like shaken up to the last bone with face for a wild runaway horse. On Friday Miss Tirrell and her sister, Mrs. Fisher, were among the guests of a wealthy ranch
owner about seven miles from the city.
In the afternoon it was suggested that a short ride on horseback would be an interesting feature of the day's program,
so a party of five or six was arranged.
An Miss Tirrell was inexperienced in horsemanship the safest mount in the stable was given her.

Scarcely had Louise settled herself when the horse began to run away and began to plunge about. Laughing at this unusual product, they all started for the main road.
Miss Tirrell's horse made a dash forward and before anyone could realize the situation, was far in advance, running wildly. The reins had been jerked completely out of Miss Tirrell's hands and she clung frantically to the pommel of the saddle, screaming for help. The gentlemen of the party were close enough, and dashed forward to try to grasp the whirling horse, more terrified by the shouts of the pursuers, dashed on over brushwood, dugouts, roadway and ditches, throwing his helpless burden from side to side.

Yawning on one side of the terrified girl was a chasm, beyond the edge of which she could see trees or fifteen feet of water.
With hands bleeding and eyes streaming, fast and frantic, the horse burst through close upon them, but never enough to catch
it all at last they reached the top of a hill.
Blowing up for a moment, the horse was
the plucky little woman watched her chance to slip to side, and fell in a heap.

Almost instantly her friends reached the spot, expecting to find her dead. She quickly reassured them to the contrary, however. No bones were broken, but her body was badly bruised. A blood-stained shirt, the torn and torn blouse
upon them, but never enough to catch
it all at last they reached the top of a hill.
Blowing up for a moment, the horse was
the plucky little woman watched her chance to
slip to side, and fell in a heap.

After a hurried supper the party was driven back to town at 8:15, when the curtains went up at the Broadway and "Dolly Prims" called out: "Toly, is the 'one-comes-lock?' nobody in the audience would have suspected that she had faced death on a wild horse a few hours before.

ROAD STREET, near Jackson Square, EAST WEYMOUTH.

WEYMOUTH AND EAST BRAintree.

—William Tobin of East Weymouth, for many years an active Republican worker, announces that he is in the hands of his friends as a candidate for representative from the 6th Norfolk district.

—Mrs. W. H. Clapp, who has been visiting her father Stephen Nash, of Amherst, N. H., returned to her home on Tuesday.

—Mrs. E. H. Hunt, who was ill with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving.

—Cocanah caramels at Harlow's 20c per pound.

—Miss Lyle Graves and Master Alfred Worthen, who have been out of town for the summer, came home Tuesday.

—F. E. Cook of Quincy street, who has been ill with neuralgia in latter.

—Walton C. Smith, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Edward Souter and a party of twelve from Boston, left Tuesday for Bethlehem, N. H., where they will remain ten days.

—Wendell H. Clapp spent Friday and Saturday in New York in the interests of business.

—John M. Nash of Front street is spending a week in Maine, where he is visiting his mother.

—Old fashioned chocolates, 25c. per pound at Harlow's.

—Charles A. Clapp left home Monday, in company with Mr. Cooper of Malden, for a business trip through California and the west.

—Athletes for the fair at South Weymouth, which opens next Thursday, may be seen in the village Saturday, when the famous o'clock chariot is mounting.

—Mrs. Martha Cowling, who had been making her home with Mrs. Henry Cowling of Norfolk street for some time past, died on Saturday last of paralysis. She had been in her usual health that day and, when late in the afternoon, it was noticed she did not seem quite so well, medical aid was summoned, but with no avail, for in a short time she had passed away. Although the deceased had lived a very quiet life, yet she had many friends who keenly feel her loss and mourn the same. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at two o'clock and the interment was in the Village cemetery.

—Worster—Mullen.

—On Thursday, Sept. 4, 1902, at the residence of the wife's parents Lancaster, La., Harry Pray Worster, formerly of Weymouth, to Avia Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Charles Mollen.

Florida Jubilee Singers.

—The Jubilee Singers connected with the Florida Academy at Jacksonville, Fla., will give a concert at the Weymouth Baptist Church next Monday evening, Sept. 9th, at 7.45. The programme will include old plantation melodies and negro camp-meeting hymns, as well as more classical selections. Admission free to all, but a silver collection will be taken for the benefit of the school with which the above organization is connected. "The Academy" was founded to help colored men and women to become makers and bread winners, hence its work is along academic and industrial lines similar to the work of Booker T. Washington." Of one of these singers Madame Lillian Nordica has said: "Today I heard Mr. Woodward sing; his voice is a true tenor, and there is nothing in art beyond his capabilities."

Musical at Capital Club.

—The Baptist Church held a large and appreciative audience Monday night at the concert by Miss Nellie M. Donovan, the popular soprano of this town. Miss Donovan may well feel proud of the event not only in her individual work but in that of every artist associated with her. The Hostess quartette, of which Miss Donovan is a member, leaves soon for a six months' tour through the west.

—Mrs. J. H. Clapp and brother Thomas Humphrey, also Mrs. Charles Humphrey and brother have arrived from Boston, Mass., on a ten days' trip.

—Miss E. T. Pratt, who has been in the city for the past week, arrived home Wednesday.

—Mrs. Charlie A. Clapp and son Warren, accompanied by Miss S. Jane Clapp, are at Hingham, N. H.

—No. 2 Ladies' Auxiliary, A. G. H., will hold a dance at Clapp's Hall, same evening early in October. Details to be announced later.

—German nougatines at Harlow's 20c. per pound.

—Misses Elizabeth Hennessy, Alice McCarthy, Ellen Sullivan, Nellie O'Neill and Mrs. Nellie McCarty were delegates from Div. 2 Ladies' Auxiliary, A. G. H., to the biennial county convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary at St. Rose Hall, Worcester street, Boston, Saturday, Sept. 13, 1902.

—Irving W. Nightingale of Worcester, Mass., a visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Nightingale of Washington, D. C.

—Mrs. John H. Clapp and son Warren, accompanied by Miss S. Jane Clapp, are at Hingham, N. H.

—Frank Bryant is visiting relatives in North Jay, Me.

—Mr. Peter White has returned from a four weeks' sojourn in New Hampshire.

—The Rev. Melvin S. Nash will preach in the First and Third Universalist Churches next Sunday the 21st, at the regular hour. Subject of sermon, "The Need of the Hour."

—William, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Delaney of Eliot street died at the Massachusetts General Hospital after having undergone an operation for appendicitis. The funeral services were held from the Church of the Sacred Heart, Boston, and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the little fellow and by a delegation of his schoolmates.

—Top and top strings at Walsh's news stand.

—Russell Bailey has taken a clerical position at the Fore River Ship & Engine Company's plant.

—Next Sunday being St. Matthews Day it will be observed at Trinity Church, Rev. William H. Gill will preach on St. Matthew the Apostle. The Holy Communion will be part of the service and the sacrament of Infant Baptism will be administered. The hour of service is 10.30 a. m.

—The Norfolk Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps have elected officers as follows:

requires physical and mental ability of a high degree to withstand its hard labors. The high tension to which the nervous system is constantly subjected, the depressing effects upon one's headache, backache, rheumatism, sciatica, etc., develop in severe form. This was the case of Mail Carrier S. F. Sweenhart, of Huntsville, Ala., he says:

"An attack of pneumonia left me with aches and pains that seemed to be all over. I was scarcely able to move for about three weeks. I then had to give up my job."

Manager and Editor.

EDITION AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEYMOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 26, 1902.

The fair at South Weymouth will continue another day.

It will probably be Speaker Myers again even if Mr. Bennett and other rivals should be elected.

The week ends with no cheering outlook in regard to the coal situation and the black millions have jumped to $15 a ton. If dealers have put the price there in order to protect themselves and the public against over-purchase on the part of some, who would it not be good idea to give the poor man, who is only able to buy a ton, a rebate of $3 or $5?

High School Graduates.

A recent discussion in regard to our High school and its deficiency has led us to look up the record of all the class presidents since we think we are justified in our assumption that few, if any, High schools in the state put so large a percentage of its graduates in higher institutions without reserve or conditions. In the thirty-seven graduates of 1902: Mary Blandford and Lucy A. French are at Mt. Holyoke College; Terese II Conroy, Marion L. Ford, Jessie M. Louis, Marie E. Marvel, Elizabeth I. Snyder and Little H. Treadell, Boston University; Elizabeth M. Land, Bridgewater State; Dorothy F. Nash, Tufts Medical Academy; Marjorie Wentworth passed a successful examination at Vassar, but will take a year's rest before entering; Myron L. Bailey, Upton University; Lewis H. Bates and John D. Bruce, Tufts Medical; Thomas N. Connell, Joseph T. Smith and Joseph J. White, Dartmouth; Alice M. Nash, Simmons College; Carlton M. Soule and Thomas Leary, Mass. Inst. Tech.; Frances Stowell, teaching in Hillside; Catherine Fraher, Ellen L. Coffey and Charles H. Mitchell, Thirteenth College; Mary E. Hannan, Pemberton Mountain School.

Others could have gone into any school or college but chose to enter into active business life.

Nofield Club.

Bowling between two teams on the alleys last Tuesday night resulted in a tie for Miller's team, while total 323; Head, total 492; Harrington, total 462; Baker, total 406; Clapp, total 366; team total 219; string totals, 863, 818, 798, agate, Miller, total 327; Hunt, 438; Moore, 115; R. H. Dow, 107; Loud, 99; string totals, 812, 840, 705; team total, 232.

Tuesday night's bowling resulted in another victory for White's team, 341 against Miller's 221. Harrington was high gun, 87.

The 100th anniversary bowling team will visit the Norfolk alleys next Monday night.

Fortieth Anniversary Poem.

At the recent fortieth anniversary exercises of Co. A, 12th Regiment Massachusetts Volunteers—held at Readville, Sept. 15, 1902—the following poem, written by Albert W. Mean, of South Weymouth, "President of the company association, was recited by him.

Always a spark left in my heart, for the friends and brothers, in the grasp of every hand.

And the Rebellion's stormy days were a fight.

You proved your Loyalty to country, and your Stars Banners bright.

There are many noble orders, with titles and titles.

But honest humanity and a helping hand, that dears to our soldier hearts, a reality, not a name.

It is our value. "Association of Company A, Forty-First."

So we call it not a duty, which calls no one, India, France and from Manchester, and places far away.

No one of those rare pleasures to meet Comrades,

Friends, and relatives have been wonderful.

For we know that they were "at the front," when they wore the "Army Blue."

What precious memories are ours, some tender, and some sad, and some of our Country's stirring call, we listed for the fray.

The bugle, the camp, the march, the fight, the dreadful prison pens.

Off from out the shadowy past and seen as real as them.

Our noble regiment, with Codman, bear a banner.

A better Colonel never drew sword, let at a review.

With Poldery and Steggs, and House on the staff,

With those that the Jonnies led before us, like the chaff!

Well, those glorious days are over, and now the Nation stands.

In War, in Freedom, and in Power, the ever young.

We're free to see the seed we sowed in hardship,

hard and tears, and toils, and toils, and toils.

Reaping fruitage for all men, in these stirring years.

Philadelphia Record—Tommie—"Is there what is the difference between a newspaper man and a journalist?" Tommie—"No difference, my son, except that the journalist has only been in the business about six months."

FOUR SCORE YEARS.

M. C. INZER of East Weymouth.

It is so evident that we did a man who enters upon the eighth decade of life and who has not yet found a market in every corner of the globe.

Leather manufacturing is a feature of the business and it is probably the only concern in the world which can truly say of its product, "From hoof to foot."

Mr. Inzer as we have said, is in many respects still in the prime of life and while he has strong help in his son Elias C., and Preston W. Lewis' general manager, he himself is daily in touch with every department of the business and may be found here and there wheling the hummer or handling the knife with all the dexterity of fifty years ago and the 100 and more employees of the factory know that he is in touch with the business.

Mr. Inzer's first wife died last Tuesday last.

In the latter part of the 19th century John Dizer, a sturdy, scarring German, settled in Boston in early life his son John Dizer, a sturdy, scarring German, and may be found here and there wheling the hummer or handling the knife with all the dexterity of fifty years ago and the 100 and more employees of the factory know that he is in touch with the business.

Mr. Dizer has for many years been closely identified with, and a strong supporter of the Baptist Church at Weymouth and last Sunday the church and society, recognizing his long and valuable relation to them, honored his birthday; the pastor, Rev. Frank H. Crossley, delivered a special sermon.

The subject of class colors was discussed down to the last detail.

NOFOLK COUNTY.

Edward Hobart, a lifelong and respected citizen of Braintree died last week at the advanced age of 85 years.

To the Norwood Police: Keep right on rounding up suspected burglars and thieves and notify small boys. We want to make this a good law and order town.—Norwood Advertiser.

Two of Nechells citizens are said to be out $500 of good money in an effort to buy a large quantity of counterfeiting bills. The bill was never received, proved to be worthless brown paper, but what if it had been otherwise?

The Hyde Park Hopewell Club, organized last week, met Wednesday evening and after deliberation decided to associate as a body with the Young Men's Hopewell Club. The meeting was full of enthusiasm and as a start a committee on registration was elected and at once started in upon duty.

Rev. Ira Hardy was ordained and installed at Custer last week in pastor of the Baptist Church in that town.

Rev. E. E. Ewing was a popular pastor of the Congregational Church at Norwood, closed his labors at that place in January.

The interests of the Quincy Gas Co. have been taken in charge by the company controlling the gas plants at Haverhill and Amesbury. It is the intention of the new company to enlarge the power station on Brickett street, to extend the main line to the city now uncovered, and to reduce the rates.

Training is being conducted in this town especially for the residents on the outskirts and away from those sections covered by the police. They call at back door, front doors, telephone, "handcuffs" and if their requests are refused in many instances become their language.—Delavan Transcript.

-Mrs. David Wolfe is clapping relatives at York Village.

-Mrs. Josephine V. Holbrook of Somerville, wife of Mrs. Freeman Saville of Somerville, this week.

-Mr. D. H. Benson and daughter, Helen, and their two sons, John and Stanley, have returned today for the winter at South Jacksonville, Fla.

-Wardine and family who have been spending the summer at Bayville, have returned to Dorchester.

-Stanley Torrey is taking the school census for the town of Weymouth.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sennett, father of Sunday school class and teacher, Mrs. Sennett, at home Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in solitude, and a contest in which Mrs. Sennett won first prize, and triangle Kehr, bodily. A safety collision was served.

-Mr. and Mrs. Hartshorne of Forest Hills were the guests of Miss Ruth Nelson.

-There will be a meeting of the Boston School Association of the First Unitarian Society at the home of Miss Emma L. Clapp, Front street, on Friday evening of this week, at 7:15 o'clock to make arrangements for the annual food.

-Rev. Melvin S. Nash, who has been spending his vacation in Hingham, N. H., returned to his parish on Sunday last and it is needless to say, was most heartily welcomed by all present at the morning service. He preached from the subject, "The Greatest Need of the Hour," this being to set the spirit of Christ's teaching in our daily life, rather than the letter. Miss Bates rendered in a pleasing manner the contralto solo, "Just As I Am" and will also sing next Sunday.

-W. C. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sonnen returned Wednesday from a week's trip to Hingham, N. H.

-New curiosities, is being sent to the staffroom of the Gazette office to the Weymouth house.

-A meeting is on foot in Braintree to secure the location of an immense new factory on the Hingham shore of the Fore River.
